

Steffanie Renee'

Fifteen year old Steffanie Renee has been singing since she was three. She has performed all over the country, with appearances in Los Vegas, Hollywood, and Nashville. She has been performing locally for various venues to include, fairs, both county and state, clubs, numerous fraternal organizations and sports arenas. In 2011, she was featured at the Suwannee River Music Jam and has opened for Travis Tritt, the Bellamy Brothers and has performed for Linda Davis and Hillary Scott of "Lady Antebellum". In August 2010, she tried out for American Idol and won her Golden Ticket to Hollywood to further compete. She is no stranger to the Clay County Fair; she performed in 2007, 2008 and 2009 singing on both the community stage as well as the main stage. She is an ambitious young lady whose goal in life is to use her voice to become a top recording artist.
